Introductory Information to Spanish Degree

Students can begin taking the required courses for the Spanish major in one of three ways:

1. By beginning with any of the lower division courses (SPAN 1010, 1020, 2010, or 2020), depending on a student's background. Students who begin with 1020, 2010, or 2020 may receive vertical credits for the lower classes, if needed, according to policy.
2. By beginning with SPAN 3010 for heritage Spanish speakers<sup>1</sup>. If needed, students can receive vertical credits for the classes skipped, according to policy (catalog.dixie.edu/academicpoliciesandprocedures/#extrainstitutionalcredittext).
3. By beginning with SPAN 3060 for native speakers<sup>1</sup> or students who have lived in a Spanish speaking environment for 1.5 years or more. If needed, students can receive vertical credits for the classes skipped, according to policy.

The Bachelor of Arts foreign language requirement may be filled with any of these three options as soon as the student receives credit for either SPAN 2020 or SPAN 3060.

Placement in foreign language classes is at the discretion of the Department Chair.

Spanish Sample Graduation Plans

- Students entering SPAN 1010 (p. )
- Heritage Spanish-speaking students (p. ) (home language is Spanish, graduated from a high school where English was the language of instruction)
- Students entering SPAN 3060 (p. ) (native Spanish-speaking students and those with a minimum of 1.5 years exposure )

Graduation Plan for students beginning with SPAN 1010

This graduation plan is designed for students who begin studying Spanish with no or very little background in the language. If a student has sufficient background to skip a class or even the beginning year, this plan will become easier. Students who will have the background to skip into a higher class will be those who have had multiple years of high school Spanish, including those who have taken AP Spanish. In these cases, speak with the department chair for placement advice.

Graduation Plan for students whose first Spanish class is 3010

This graduation plan is designed for heritage Spanish-speaking students. These are students whose home language is Spanish but who attended and graduated from high schools in which English was the language of instruction. Placement in Spanish courses will vary based on an individual student's skill level.

In this graduation plan, there is room for students to take 33 elective credits. This allows students opportunity to get a minor or even a second major in another field that will greatly improve future career opportunities.
